

Château Le Tertre de Caussan 2012

Medoc AOC

Château Le Tertre de Caussan is located in Blaignan, in the heart of Medoc appellation. Since 2011, Nicolas Caussan is the manager of this family operation that was created in the 1930's by his great grand father. The first ever parcels circled a mill on a hill near de Caussan village. Hence the name of the chateau.

Vineyard's surface : 17.76 ha

Yield : 53hl/ha

Types of soil : Clay-limestone

Vine population : Merlot 60% Cabernet Sauvignon 30% Cabernet Franc 10%

Average age of the vineyard : 21 years old

Plant density : 5000 foot/ha

Pruning : Guyot double/ Medocan pruning

Cultivation methods : grass between rows, chemical or mechanical weeding under the row.

Wine harvest : Mechanical

Vinification : Coated steel tank , coated concrete et stainless steel

Maceration : in total 21 days of vatting

Maceration temperature : 24°C à 28°C depending on maturity levels

Ageing : Tank

Volume of alcohol : 13%

Bottling : Provider

Marketing : direct/winery departure

Serving temperature : 18 – 20°C

Keeping advice : To drink now or to keep for 8 to 10 years.

Food and wine matches : Smooth and fresh wine to discover during your meal with meat.